Project Proposal

Site Name: DRC Kinshasa Seminaries & Institutes Coordination

Why I Chose This Name

This website will serve as the official communication and resource hub for the DRC Kinshasa Seminaries and Institutes Coordination, where I serve as a Coordinator. The name clearly identifies the organization, its purpose, and the area it serves, making it easy for students, teachers, and leaders to recognize and access relevant information.

Site Purpose

The purpose of this website is to provide a centralized digital platform that supports Seminary and Institute students, instructors, parents, and Church leaders throughout the DRC Kinshasa Coordination.

The website will:

- Promote Seminary and Institute enrollment.
- Provide schedules and course information.
- Share participation statistics and success stories.
- Support instructors through training resources and teaching materials.
- Highlight youth activities and special events.
- Improve communication between students, teachers, and leaders.
